

Nasik- A Tourist Paradise

Nasik is a unique town where antiquity blends with modern life. Situated on the banks of the eternal river Godavari in Central India, at a distance of 200 kms from the metropolis of Mumbai, Nasik has multiple attractions for the worldly as well as the spiritual. It is the place where Lord Rama, the Hindu god, spent 14 years in exile.

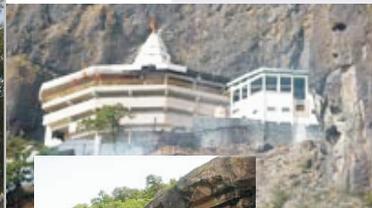

In recent years Nasik has metamorphosed from a sleepy pilgrim place to a bustling metropolis. Huge Industrial areas sprung up in and around Nasik quickening its economic pulse. With the prosperity have come along all the amenities of civic life with five star hotels, gardens, boulevards, swimming pools, playgrounds, shopping malls, and auditoriums.....

The landscape will take your breath away. Nestling among the foothills of Mt. Sahyadri, Nasik is surrounded by lush grapeyards and verdant orchards. With the cool, invigorating breeze blowing all year round, you never leave the comfort zone in Nasik .

Hosting the mammoth Kumbh Mela, a gathering of nearly 1 million pilgrims, every 12 years; Nasik is the gateway to some of the holiest places in India, including many Hindu Shrines, the Vipassana Meditation Centre at Dhamma Giri and Shirdi of great sage Sai Baba

There is more to beckon you- The scenic beauty of Someshwar falls, and the fascinating Trirashmi, Ajanta and Ellora caves nearby, the sparkling wines of Sula, the sparkling gems of Gargoti and the enchanting hill station of Saputara....

